FALL 2024

DATE/TIME	WORKSHOP TITLE	FACILITATOR	LOCATION
Mon, 9/23 12:00-1:00pm	Strategies for Writing Introductions	Michael Schulze	808A

You only have one chance to make a first impression, and the same holds true for writing. Come to this workshop for ideas, strategies, and suggestions for writing strong introductions. Bring your drafts!

Wed, 9/25 1:30-2:30pm	How to Fix Your Run-on Sentences & Comma Splice Errors	Heidi Guss	808A
--------------------------	--	------------	------

Many students struggle with run-ons and comma splices because they are trying to avoid using short, choppy sentences. This workshop will help you avoid these errors and connect sentences effectively. Suitable for all students!

Wed, 10/2 10:30-11:30 am	Trying to Kick the Procrastination Habit?	Annie Liu	808A
-----------------------------	---	-----------	------

Come to this workshop to discover some of the underlying reasons students put off assignments and learn some practical strategies to get started on your essays.

Mon, 10/7 12:00-1:00pm	Outline to Essay: How to Create an Organized, Developed Argument	Sheilah Stokes-Dobyns	808A
---------------------------	--	-----------------------	------

This workshop will provide students with a plan for starting with a prompt, breaking it into manageable parts and creating an outline that addresses the prompt, helping with organizing and developing ideas.

Thurs 10/17 1:00-2:00 pm	Selecting Great Evidence for Essays	Meg O'Rourke	808A
-----------------------------	-------------------------------------	--------------	------

Do you have an essay looming? Having trouble deciding what evidence to include? This workshop will introduce you to strategies for finding relevant and convincing evidence. Most appropriate for students working on essays that require sources.
