

Fullerton College

ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTER

WRITING CENTER WORKSHOPS

SPRING 2026

DATE/TIME	WORKSHOP TITLE	FACILITATOR	LOCATION
Tues, Feb. 10 1:30–2:30 pm	Brainstorming & Outlining	Shelby Perlis	808A

For anyone who has ever struggled to begin a writing project—in this workshop, we will tour easy brainstorming strategies and practice outlining to find a prewriting path that works best for you. Come rediscover the benefits of drafting and explore easier methods for building your future papers!

Thurs, Feb. 19 2:30–3:30 pm	How to Organize & Develop Body Paragraphs	Deborah Paige	808A
--------------------------------	---	---------------	------

Writing body paragraphs can be challenging. What comes first? How long should my quotes be? What does it mean to “analyze” and “discuss” my ideas? How do I end the paragraph? This workshop will address all these questions and allow students to practice some strategies.

Tues, Feb. 24 3:00–4:00 pm	Quote Sandwiches	Amy Kobayashi	808A
-------------------------------	------------------	---------------	------

In this workshop, you will learn a structured method for how to effectively integrate quotes into your own writing and connect it to your thesis statement.

Wed, Feb. 25 1:30–2:30 pm	Run-on Sentences & Comma Splices	Heidi Guss	808A
------------------------------	----------------------------------	------------	------

Many students struggle with run-ons and comma splices because they are trying to avoid using short, choppy sentences. This workshop will help you avoid these errors and connect sentences effectively.

Thurs, Feb. 26 11:00–12:00pm	Crafting Strong Thesis Statements	Sheilah Stokes-Dobyns	808A
---------------------------------	-----------------------------------	-----------------------	------

Do you struggle with writing your main argument and organizing your essays well? The solution could be fixing up your thesis statements! This workshop will pinpoint what makes a strong thesis statement and provide advice about how to avoid common pitfalls that lead to weaker thesis statements. There will be opportunities to practice thesis writing skills.

More workshops on the back!

Visit <https://academicsupport.fullcoll.edu>

ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTER

WRITING CENTER WORKSHOPS

SPRING 2026

DATE/TIME	WORKSHOP TITLE	FACILITATOR	LOCATION
Thurs, March 5 3:00–4:00 pm	Quoting & Citing: Effective Source Integration & Plagiarism Avoidance	Rosalinda Ruiz	808A

Have you ever been frustrated by citing your sources? Have you ever wondered about the best way to integrate source material? This workshop will help to address how to include research and how to give credit to the sources.

Thurs, March 12 10:00–11:00 am	Stay on Track: How to Fully Respond to Essay Prompts	Betsy Navarette	808A
-----------------------------------	--	-----------------	------

Do your essays wander off-topic or leave parts of the question unanswered? This workshop will give you practical tools to decode prompts and organize responses that address every part of the prompt.

Tues, March 24 1:45–2:45 pm	Who Said That? Giving Credit to Your Sources	Annie Liu	808A
--------------------------------	--	-----------	------

If you're unsure how to cite the sources in your essay, join us as we go over why and how to give credit to your sources. This workshop will focus on MLA style citations, but feel free to bring questions about APA citations.

Thurs, March 26 10:30–11:30 am	Strategies for Writing Introductions	Michael Schulze	808A
-----------------------------------	--------------------------------------	-----------------	------

You only have one chance to make a first impression, and the same holds true for writing. Come to this workshop for ideas, strategies, and suggestions for writing strong introductions. Students are encouraged to bring drafts of essays they are writing

Contact us for more information:

✉ writingcenter@fullcoll.edu

☎ (714) 992-7153

Visit <https://academicsupport.fullcoll.edu>